NAAC Question – 12

Does the institution have a transparent mechanism for timely redressed of student's grievances including sexual harassment and ragging cases?

Answer

The college has constituted a cell of transparent mechanism for timely redressed of student's grievances. This cell always looks into the grievances lodged by any students. Matters like sexual harassment, ragging cases and any physical or mental harassment faced by students are taken into serious consideration by the cell. College is dedicated to maintain a healthy, pleasant and ambient environment among students. To ensure the safety of girl's student, women cell is organized. Grievances box is also set up in college to facilitate student to file their complaints.
