

Books are the quietest and most constant of friends; they are the most accessible and wisest of counselors and the most patient of teachers''- The quote emphasizes the significance of books and the place where these are lodged, therefore is definitely a place of worship and that is none other than a library. To cater to the needs of the students, the college offers good reading material in the form of books, periodicals, encyclopedias, magazines, newspapers etc. It is a place that is used for acquiring knowledge and gathering information. The college library is neat and clean and with comfortable furniture. It provides a peaceful and scholarly environment which is an incentive to study. There are separate reading and reference rooms. The library staff is also very cooperative and renders all sorts of help needed by the students and faculty equally. The students are issued library cards and besides reading in the library they can also get the books issued, carry them along and return them after reading, limited time is of course given to restrict unwanted keeping the books by students and bringing them back for rotation among other students. Undoubtedly, the college library is a boon to students in this region as the college has the maximum number of students from a rural background and poor economic status: The college library has about 10000 books classified and indexed. The library is situated in a separate independent building which includes one reading halls,with computer
