The NCC unit of college decided to adopt a village for social work and awareness. The name of the village is 'Chhapra'. Which belong to tehsil jayal, Nagaur district. This village has about 700 houses and population is approximetely 3500. The main objective of adopting this village is to do social work in the entire village through plantation, cleanliness campaign, awareness rally, de-addiction campaign, AIDS awareness, women empowerment, environment protection wild life safety and water conservation. To make the village clean & to maintain the healthy environment is the primary task of NCC cadet. For this purpose VEER ROHIDA Park, GOKHALE Park, VINOD Park & Gandhi Jayanti Park were developed by planting trees in the sports ground of Government Higher Sec. School and outside of the wall of school. Approximately 300 plants including Rohida were planted for this purpose. The responsibility of water supply and protection of there plants is taken over by the of NCC students, Dr. Premsingh Bugasara (In-charge NCC) along with faculty members & Villagers. A Sincere attempts was made by NCC cadets of college to make the village as on ideal village by developing mutual co-operation and social interaction and communal harmony among the natives of village.
