To go with new trend and to fulfil need of time. ? To ease the process and practice of least paper use. ? To aware the students with global trend. 3 The Context: It is need of time and being a higher education institute, the College must use the new technologies in all practices. The DCE established centralized and common process of the admission for all the government colleges in the Rajasthan. Before starting this system, the DCE set-up the centralized web portal and given pages on it to all the government colleges for this type of new practices as well as make easy access for common people and up-dated the government higher education institutes. 4. The Practice: The DCE started the new admission process through online system from the session 2013-14 in some selected government colleges which had the essential facilities and wish to adopt online admission process in first phase. From the next session 2014-15, it had been compulsory for every government college to adopt this process. The College has been successfully done the work and feels very good with this new admission process. The DCE inviting every year suggestions for betterment and improvement in the online admission process and it will be extended for all the courses and classes in near future. 5. Evidence of Success: Evidences of the success of this practice are: • Increased number of application for fresh admission because of a student can apply sitting anywhere and not need to come to college for purchasing application forms as well as submit it. • Messages directly sent to the selected candidates. • Information directly sent to the candidates for checking of documents, deposition of fees, allotment of subjects etc. • The process made more transparent, one can see easily online anywhere the status of admission. 6. Problems Encountered and Resources Required: The students are habitual of manual process so that at starting of the system, the College and students faced so many problems. Most of the students are belonged to the rural areas and they faced the much problem like go to the cyber café/internet café/computer centers for filing the online forms, uploading the photo, documents etc., but after that they feel better in this new process.
