

MAHARANA PRATAP GOVERNMENT COLLEGE, CHITTORGARH (RAJ.)

7.1.9 - Sensitization of students and employees of the Institution to the constitutional obligations: values, rights, duties and responsibilities of citizens

The birth anniversary of B.R. Ambedkar is celebrated as 'Equality Day' and he is also considered as the maker of Indian Constitution hence on the eve of his anniversary the students and faculties of the college take an oath of abidance and fulfilling the duties and obligations of the Indian Constitution with purity and devotion. A dedicated constitutional club committee is constituted in the college for the aforesaid purpose. The entrance of the college main building a banner imprinted with preamble of the Indian constitution is displayed for public. During the oath taking ceremony the preamble is read out by the head of the institution before a gathering of the students and members of the faculty.

A voters 'Electoral Club' is also functional in the college. Under this club a systematic voter's education and electoral participation (SVEEP) program is carried out as per the instructions of the Election Commission of India. The club also celebrates National Voters' Day on Jan 25 every year in collaboration with the district administration.
