

NSS ONE DAY CAMP

Gardens provide us with clean air and create habitat for animals .NSS one day camp was held on 09.03.23 in which the students of all the three units actively participated and cleaned the science wing botanical garden. This will create awareness in students about maintenance of ecosystem The weeds were removed and proper gardening work was done by the students. The decayed leaves were collected and the ground was cleaned.

