4. The covid time situation requires the faculty members to adopt blended teaching learning mode (online and offline). For that purpose preparation of e-Content, video lectures, PDF notes, and other online modes of teaching-learning are to be encouraged.
5. The proper and wide publicity of the available online study material and video lectures etc.
6. The mentor-mentee system of the College should be updated. Mentor should be encouraged to stay in contact with their mentees to facilitate their learning experiences during covid time.
7. Along with academic/curricular activities, students should be motivated to participate in online co-curricular activities also.
8. Efforts should be made to form Alumni Association of the college.
