2.7.1: Student Satisfaction Survey (SSS) on overall institutional performance

Year: 2021-22

196 responses

Link: <https://docs.google.com/forms/d/1u1dJ65t2cwQ9LvFaRO0mm6MtCn2q4t4MAJph12ttXog/viewanalytics>

The student satisfaction survey was done using a Google sheet, the sheet shared through mentors to their respective classes, and an online automated analysis report was generated through the Google feedback form. There were 196 student respondents who gave their views on satisfaction with teaching-learning environment in the college. The quantitative and qualitative analysis of the Student Satisfaction Survey (SSS) is being given herewith on the following pages-

A powerful technique to understand what a student knows and what she could do to improve

Online class
Projector screen
Usful example

Classes regular honi cahiye body language should be given should help every student

- 1)I think teacher should take the classes regularly.
- 2) they should tell us initially about their whole year plane of teaching.
- 3)personalized guidance is needed to the students by the teachers for the better outcomes.

Everything is very well.But some following tips to improve the overall teaching learning process-

1. Teachers should use ICT tools because it's very effective and intresting to learning.

Best smart class available

Teachers ki bat manna, her topic ko example se "smjna, hard work krna

Good
