35 SWOC analysis of the department and future plans :

Strengths

- High quality academic programming at the undergraduate level.
- Highly qualified, experienced and dedicated cadre of teaching faculty. Majority of faculty in department.
- A strong focus on quality teaching with a faculty that excels in teaching students at all levels.

Weakness

- Insufficient supporting staff.
- Shortage of Laboratory and other subordinate staff.

Opportunities

- Students of the Department have a lot of opportunities in various government departments as administrative, research labs, education etc.

Challenges

- Linkage with research institutes.
- Students growth has reached a point whereby we have no space capacity (facilities & Faculty) to meet changing needs and demands.

Department of Chemistry

The Department of Chemistry, was established in 2008. Chemistry is one of the basic sciences. Knowledge of chemistry is indispensable for the pursuit of any of the other sciences. We need it to the study of technology, pharmacology, mineralogy and what not. It is indispensable for the study of Physics, Geology, Biology and Physiology. Hence it is a compulsory subject of study for each student of science stream.

The faculty is dedicated to impart knowledge and inculcate moral and ethical values among the students. The faculty of the department is highly qualified and experienced. At present 425 undergraduate students are studying in this department (which include Biology and Maths students).

1. Dr. Sushma Vyas, Principal of the college, has served the Government since 1982. She is a renowned figure in this field.
2. Dr. Nikita Sharma, a faculty member, joined this college in Oct., 2015 and has been teaching since 2002.

The course provides ample opportunities to the students in pursuing higher studies and getting job.

Challenges

Providing proper infrastructure and encouraging students to go for higher studies and research in pure sciences.

Department of Zoology

The department of zoology is a well settled department of this college. It started in the year 2008. Though there is only one sanctioned post in the subject, the faculty has always tried to impart quality education and give practical knowledge to the students along with the subject.

There are 256 students in the subject at UG level and at least one more faculty member is required for the smooth running of the department but due to government policies of recruitment the process is delayed. The department has fully equipped laboratory which can be used for PG classes also and the Education Minister during his visit in the college has promised to upgrade the department at PG level from the next session.

Department doesn't have separate departmental library but the students are provided books time to time by the faculty member as most of the students are from the rural area and belong to weaker section.

The faculty member present is experienced, engaged in research activities, participates in seminars and conferences and remain updated.

The Department also organises various activities for students during the science council which include extension lectures, excursion and quiz etc.

Strengths

- Well Qualified, Experienced and Dedicated Teaching Faculty.
- Departmental Library.
- Strong focus on quality teaching with a faculty that excels in teaching students at all levels.

Weakness

- In adequate facilities that rooms teaching aids in ICT.
- Lack of support towards practical training and online courses.

Opportunities

- With growing student demand of opportunity lies in starting new integrated programs and extending help to students pursuing professional courses like CA, CS.
- Conducting a variety of faculty development programs and conferences.

Challenges

- Competition form other institutions who have more diverse programming opportunities and resources for students like on line courses.
- Students growth has reached a point whereby we have no space capacity (facilities & Faculty) to meet changing needs and demands.

Future Plan

- Enrich departmental Library
- Provide practical training to students.

Department of Geography

All human activity takes place on geographic stage of great environmental and cultural diversity and constant makeover. The department of geography was set up in the year 2012. The approach of the Department is to equip students with theoretical and methodological skills essential for gaining insights into environmental, socio-economic and demographic, processes in unique regional settings from a spatial perspective.

The Department offers courses at the undergraduate level for student who are enrolled B.A. programme in the college. Apart from a general coverage of the fundamental aspects of Physical and Human geography, the course is geared to develop surveying and cartographic skills.

GAMES AND SPORTS

Physical health is equally important as mental awareness and, therefore, the aim of an educational institution is not justified until it nurtures both. Sports play a significant role in the life of a person as it helps a person to set a goal and plan strategy to win as one would do so while playing. This not only elevates physical ability but also provides mental agility. A set of rules are always laid down for playing any sport or game and this helps to inculcate a sense of discipline in an individual. Winning or losing also gives strength to fight for success.

The college provides facilities for indoor as well as outdoor games. Various sports played by the students of the college include Hockey, Cricket, Volley Ball, Kho-Kho, Kabbadi, Athletics, Table Tennis, Chess and Carrom. In the infrastructure, the facility of few games is not available, hence are played elsewhere for which a prior official permission is sought by the Institution.

Although most of the students of this college are from rural background yet they perform well in academics as well as sports by the medals won by them in different events ensures this fact.

The college has a regular PTI, who takes care of various sports and the faculty members also render their help, whenever required. It is often needed during team selections, organising competitions, taking teams to different places during tournaments etc. There is a Sports room where sports articles and record pertaining to them are kept.

Dr. Amita Adhikari joined this college in Oct. 2014. She has been in this profession since 18 years. She is a member of Sports Board University of Rajasthan Jaipur.

SPORTS FACILITY

The college lays importance on physical fitness and promotes sports in every possible way. There is a Director, Physical Education working in the college and the college has arrangements with external professional coaches to impart training to the students in different games.

There are grounds for hockey, kho-kho, kabbadi, athletics, and courts for playing volleyball and handball.

For indoor games, chess boards, carom boards and TT table are kept in the college campus. The college has an arrangement for its players to utilize the facilities available for Badminton, Judo, Athletics on a regular basis.

Achievement

A number of students have won medals in athletics inter collegiate tournaments.

Our college conducted Women's Inter College Kabbadi Tournament successfully in 2014-15.

Our students were selected as a member in Inter-university team in Kabbadi and Kho-Kho.

Proposed

- Proper hockey and Badminton ground
- Two / four hundred metres running track
- Table tennis court.

HUMAN RIGHTS CELL

Human rights may be viewed as an on-going attempt to define human dignity and worth and to create human rights culture in society. The basic principle of human rights culture will survive only if people continue to see a point in it doing so. Human Rights and fundamental freedom allow us to develop fully and use our human qualities, intelligence, talents and conscience and to satisfy spiritual and other needs. They are based on mankind increasing demand for a life in which the inherent dignity and worth of each human being will receive respect and protection .

The Human Rights Cell has been working to sensitize students to develop a balanced views about our rights and duties concentrating on encouraging and empowering them. Various lectures are organized on woman related issues like women's legal rights, girl child education, problems of child marriage etc. During seminars, workshops and lectures these issues are discussed and debated in order to enhance awareness among students. Using a diverse range of academics and cultural activities including talks by well-known professionals with special expertise in their respective fields, the Cell makes extra efforts in creating awareness about the gender disparity prevalent in society and tries to explore and suggest ways to counter it. The Cell fosters decision making ability in girl students by inculcating self-sufficiency and encourages self-reliance in choosing their vocations according to their own bent of minds by organizing various competitions like essay writing, poster making, quiz, debate, dramatics etc.

All the programmes conducted by the cell emphasize on the rights of women and make them to understand as to how they should shape themselves right from the very beginning as they are the future of healthy generations. Some important events and activities:

Strength:

- Dedicated team of faculty members who impart their duties honestly.
- Good infrastructure has been available to conduct the activities of YDC.

Weakness:

- Majority of the students belong to rural areas. Hence they are very weak in either English or Hindi language.
- Majority of students have the tendency of escape from these sessions.

Opportunities:

Government of Rajasthan has continued the scheme from the last 7 years. This is the right platform for the students of Government Colleges provided by the government to develop employability skills and other job skills free of cost to build the best human resource for the future and to serve the nation in their best capacity.

Challenges:

The challenges for the department are to address to its weaknesses and grab faintest possible opportunity coming its way. Few of the challenges are

1. Improving the language skills of the students along with teaching employability skills.
2. Providing various job opportunities to the students.
3. Making the students well acquainted with ICT skills.

National Service Scheme (NSS)

The institution has two units of National Service Scheme which organise social awareness programmes to build character in students as individuals. Both the units function to instill the spirit of social service and nation building. Students are motivated to give their best to society through attending lecturers, workshops, activity based programmes on Plantation, Blood Donation, Water Conservation, Cleanliness, Voter Awareness, AIDS Awareness, Awareness regarding Road safety, Literacy, Vaccination, Health and Hygiene and important days celebrations, thereby following NSS calendar.

NSS units conduct Street Plays, Rallies and public discussion in the adopted communities. NSS special camps are being regularly organised by both the units. NSS Programme officers regularly represent the district during national events like lectures, workshops, Blood Donation Camp, Road Safety Programme, etc. The institution is sensitive to various social problems. It, therefore, conducts relevant programmes and the students are encouraged and motivated to join NSS units in the beginning of the session. NSS volunteers actively participate in all regular activities, one day camps and a seven day special camp. All the activities of NSS units are well conducted and its impact is analysed and studied.

Details of achievements follow thus: -

SPECIAL EFFORTS FOR ENVIRONMENT

Growing population and technological advancement are continuously putting a strain on natural resources. Rural area where 70% of Indian population reside and directly dependent upon natural resources, every person in India should be aware of his/her responsibilities towards making environment clean and green. Conservation of natural resources and promotion of environment cannot be done without involving the student in planning and training for promoting the value for conservation and promotion of environment.

Students are the upcoming talents of the society and can contribute and participate for protection of the environment in many ways:-

- To develop hobby of Gardening, they can at least keep the environment of their houses healthy by growing plants as medicinal ornamental plant and vegetable plant which can be easily grown in houses.
- We are in habit of throwing the rubbish and waste after cutting the vegetable, graining wiping and cleaning the floor on the municipal road just outside our house. Use of garbage box, kept by the municipality can be developed as habit in student. It keeps not only our house clean and healthy. But also our city and surrounding environment will become orderly and healthy.
- Development of good habit among student-

1. Not to spoil and harm the plants/tree during their visits to garden and public areas.
2. To love and respect the nature
3. Keep the things in tidy manner in parks, schools, gardens etc.

The green belt movement is one of the biggest movements in environmental history. Nobel prize winner Wangari Maathai founded this movement on the environment day in June 1977. We are also encouraging plantation habit in the college to understand students for the aim to bring environment restoration along with beautification as well as good climate for us.

NSS volunteers play major role in awareness of plantation and cleaning the college environment. They visit the adopted communities alongwith NSS programme officers to communicate with the inhabitants of the community and make them learn how to keep houses and surrounding areas clean, and make aware of its benefits to avoid all harmful effects.

Government Girls College, Chomu is located 33 kms far from Jaipur in Chomu on NH-11. The area of land is 5.01 hectare. A large part of land is not constructed; vacant land is planted with the help of the forest department. Plants which are selected can be grown in minimum water resources Tree, shrubs, climber and herbs, and seasonal flowers are planted in the botanical garden which assist the students in their study. Medicinal plants like Aloe Vera, Azadirachta indica, Tylophora and Ocimum sanctum etc. are also maintained in the campus.

Women Cell

The Women Cell, from its establishment in 1999, has been incessantly working to sensitize and develop a balanced view of students about the various social and gender issues. The primary aim of the Cell is to provide a safe and congenial atmosphere to all the female students in the college. Various lectures are organized on female foeticide, importance of girl child, girl child education, women rights, food and nutrition, maintenance of clean environment, family planning, problems of child marriage etc. Seminars, Workshops and lectures including talks by well-known professionals with special expertise in their respective fields are organised, The Cell helps in creating awareness about the gender disparity prevalent in society and tries to explore and suggest ways to counter it. The Cell organizes various intra and inter college competitions like essay writing, poster making, quiz and debate etc.

The main objective of the Cell is to create awareness to develop critical thinking and make the students conscious of their real worth as women and create new sensibility for the construction of a society free of all prejudices against women through such useful and relevant activities and interactive sessions. All the programmes conducted by the Cell emphasize on the rights of women and make them understand as to how they should shape themselves right from the very beginning as they are the future providers of healthy generations.

The influx of more and more girl students in the college during the recent years has rendered the female students an active and expressive platform to share their diverse opinions, ideas and perspectives.

Quality Sustenance and Enhancement Measure

Government Girls College, Chomu was established in 1999 to give impetus to women education in Chomu and adjacent rural areas. The college has great responsibility in equipping the girl students for their overall social development including better job prospects. The IQAC was set up on 9, January 2016 in this college. It plans to work for accessing the goals, quality enhancement and sustenance.

The IQAC includes two local nominated external members, who monitor the quality sustenance and quality enhancement efforts. The other members include the Principal who is its chairperson, two members and few other members from the college. Progression / performance of students are adjudged after every academic session based on their results of annual examination. If there is a decline in the pass % , measures are suggested by the Cell to ensure improvisation in the forthcoming session. Suggestions made by IQAC has also been executed at the levels of developing IT Infrastructure , effective teaching, proper allocation and maintenance of funds, research and student support.

Quality Sustenance and Quality Enhancement Indicators

Curricular Aspects:

- Participation of the faculties in International/National Conferences, Workshops, Refreshers and Orientation Courses, frequent visits to Research Institutions and Industries, etc. equip the faculties with new trends.
- Two compulsory subjects viz. Computer Science and Environment Studies have been introduced at the first year level to expose the learners from rural back ground to latest technology and generate awareness for social and environmental issues.
- The college offers under-graduation courses in 10 subjects, post-graduation courses in 03 subjects out of which 02 courses are under self finance scheme.

Teaching -Learning and Evaluation:

- A number of measures have been taken to make classroom teaching more student-centric.
- It is mandatory for the students seeking admission at the first year level to opt for any of the extra-curricular activities offered by the college. Co-curricular activities are undertaken with an aim to move beyond the realm of formal learning and foster creative and critical thinking. Extra-curricular activities that fall outside the educational curriculum are regular features in the college and are conducted by Youth Development Centre (YDC), Women Cell, NSS, Ranger units etc.

Research, Consultancy and Extension:

- The college has 02 registered PhD supervisors.
- The faculty has published research papers and books.

Infrastructure and Learning Resources:

- There are 19 traditional class rooms 09 Practical Laboratories, 01 staff room. Separate rooms for each department, girls' common room, an independent Women Cell, UGC Cell, Career Counselling Cell, Health Care Centre and Student's Union office. All the blocks have proper and separate wash rooms / toilets for students, drinking water points fitted with water coolers.

- The college library is well stocked with 7618 till date books which are systematically arranged in almirahs, racks and shelves. They are classified on the basis of subjects and indexed which helps the reader to locate a particular book without any difficulty.
- Students not only get their subject related books but also gather information related to current events, burning issues, latest developments, reports etc.
- The college has more than 03 computers in offices.

Student Support and Progression:

- The support is furnished at various levels viz. information, infrastructure, finance, counselling and exposure.
- Informational support – college prospectus, updated college website, classroom teaching, quarterly newsletter.
- Infrastructural support – well-furnished classrooms, equipped laboratories, medical centre, library, computer and internet facility, playgrounds etc.
- Finance – liberal fee structure and scholarships.
- Counselling – Career Counselling Cell, NSS, YDC, Women Cell, skill development programme in personality development and communication skills, Placement Cell,
- Anti-Ragging Cell, Internal Complaints Committee, remedial classes.
- Exposure – co-curricular and extra-curricular activities, sports, academic events like seminars, workshops, symposium, literary activities, and college magazine “Arunima”.
- The college has an excellent library with a good number of relevant reference books in all the subjects taught in the college. Departmental libraries have also a good collection of books which are of great help to aspiring scholars.
- Activities, which add on to the research environment and inculcate research aptitude among students, include field surveys, excursions, visit to research laboratories and institutes through which awareness towards latest technology is created and students are motivated to pursue research activity. Few of the activities initiated by the college in the recent past are:
 - Wild life conservation and Celebration of Wildlife Week
 - Celebration of World Environment day
 - Essay and debate competitions on Environmental issues, global warming, greenhouse gases etc.
 - Slogans and posters related to the same
 - Blood donation camps
 - Cleanliness drive by NSS
 - Plantation
 - Extension lectures on topics like HIV, gender, drug abuse, female infanticide, health, hygiene, crime, terrorism, human rights etc.
 - Community development programmes
 - Fuel and water saving drives
 - Annual research workshop by YDC
