31. Delegation of powers.–The Government may, by general or special order, direct that any power exercisable by it or any head of department under these rules (except the powers under the rule (30) and this rule) shall, subject to such conditions, if any, as may be specified in the order, be exercisable also by such officer or authority as may be specified in the order.

32. Repeal and Saving.—(1) The Rajasthan Government servant's Pensioner's Conduct Rules, 1950, so far in force and any Notification issued and orders made under any such rules to the extent to which they apply to the persons to whom these rules apply, are hereby repealed:

Provided that –

- (i) such repeal shall not affect the previous operation of the said Rules, Notifications and orders or anything done or any action taken there under;
- (ii) any proceedings under the said Rules, Notifications, or orders pending at the commencement of these rules, or initiated after the commencement of these rules shall be continued and disposed of as so far as may be, in accordance with the provisions of these rules.

(2) Nothing in these shall be operative to deprive any person to whom these rules apply to any right which had accrued to him under the rules, notifications, or orders repealed by sub-rule (1) in respect of any order passed before the commencement of the rules.
