Govt. Girls Poly. College celebrated its Annual Day with great gusto and enthusiasm on 20 November, 2017 in the college premises. The day marked the achievement and goals of our college, staff, and students which made the college, what it is today.

The collector of AJMER, Mr Goyal, graced the occasion as the chief guest.

Prize were awarded to the meritorious students.

This was followed by 'Saraswati Vandana' and the College Report, which was presented by Asha Chaudan, the school Captain.

The hallmark of the function was a street play 'Aaj ki Aaway' present by III year students.

This short play raised questions on the role of the educators from the young adult's perspective.

The play was given a standing ovation by the parents and teacher alike.

Mr Goyal, in his speech, said about women empowerment & rights.

The function concluded with a vote of thanks extended by our worthy Principal Ma'am. and singing of the national anthem by all.

Yours Sincerely

Dear Father

I am fine. I hope that you and mother are doing well. My studies are going well. I got 80% marks in first test and I assure you that I will do my best in my future also.

I am writing this letter to ask your permission to join N.C.C. There is a Nodal Unit of NCC in our college. It trains the boys in self-discipline and service to the society. It is also beneficial for my future also. So I request you to permit me to become a cadet in NCC.

Rest is fine. Convey my regards to mummy & grandma and love to all.

Yours loving

Akansha Sharma
