

Best Practice – 2:

1.Title of the Practice:-

To promote the culture of Marwar all the faculty members and Students wear tradition Marwari dress once in a week.

2.Objective of the Practice :-

To cultivates a tendency which can promote and also transmit the rich cultural heritage of our country into the young minds and forthcoming generations of our nation.

3.The Context:-

Many festivals related to Marwari cultures are celebrated with proper tempo and rhyme and reason of this tradition is explained in detail.

4.The Practice: -

Teachers and students get interested in their culture and starts wearing traditional clothes even outside the college premises and social gatherings.

5.Evidence of Success:-

Students have started wearing tradition clothes. Even they come to know about our culture.

6.Problems Encountered and Resources Required:-

As in it is the time of modern fashion and students are so much bewitched by Western culture. So it is a bit difficult for them to adopt traditional culture. There shouldbe an additional fund in the colleges for it.