

Smt. Seeta Devi Chunnilal Baradia, Government Girls' College, Pipar City

Code of Conduct for Teaching Staff

- It is expected of the teacher to uphold the honour and dignity of the Profession as it is a noble profession.
- Being a government servant, they are advised to abide by the 'Government Rules & Policies'. (Rajasthan Service Rules)
- Quality education should be provided so as to meet the vision and mission of the college.
- Be impartial, friendly, help, guide, encourage and assist the students and enact as good counsellors and facilitators
- A teacher must be devoted and honest towards his/her duty exhibiting utmost loyalty and sincerity towards the best interests of the College.
- Teachers are required to be present in the campus during the scheduled working hours.
- Prior permission be sought by the teacher in case of taking leave.

Code of Conduct for Non-Teaching Staff

- Must report to duty on time and remain present during college hours.
- Follow strictly the rules and regulation laid down under 'Rajasthan Service Rules'.
- Exercise self-discipline, honesty and integrity.
- Must take prior permission before availing any leave.
- Take utmost care and maintain secrecy pertaining to official documents and must not divulge, alter or forge them.
- Must respect and maintain hierarchy in administration.