

CH. BALLURAM GODARA GOVT. GIRLS COLLEGE,
SRIGANGANAGAR (RAJASTHAN)

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR STUDENTS

- The students should maintain discipline; in case of violation disciplinary action would be taken.
- The students should be polite, respectful and well-mannered.
- It is expected that a healthy and decent relationship is exhibited among all students.
- Once the student enters the premises, they should have a deep concern towards each and every property of the college viz. building, furniture, library-resources, laboratory equipment, college lawns, trees and plants etc.
- The campus must be kept clean. The students should refrain from scribbling on walls and black boards.
- Whenever the students are free from classes, they are advised to use the library or engage themselves in co-curricular activities.
- The student should come to the campus in college-uniform and always have with them their college I-cards while entering the campus.
- Ragging and eve-teasing is totally taken as a serious offence and the students are advised not to indulge in any such activities. The Students must stay away from anti-social activities.
- Consumption of tobacco in any form, drug etc. is completely prohibited.
- Indulging in malpractices during examinations is taken as a serious offence.
- Zooming on vehicles in the college premises is completely restricted.
- The college with its code of conduct for students wishes to inculcate moral human values to chisel their personalities into the responsible citizens.