Dear Shri Bhagwati Prasad ji,

We have received a proposal from Shaping Future, an eminent group of professionals, which includes prominent NRR. They wish to financially support economically disadvantaged students for higher education and also seek to provide free/subsidized coaching to such students, for admission in educational institutes including preparations for the civil services examination.

The letter received from their principal coordinator, Shaping Future is attached for reference.

As informed, till date, they have reached out this benefit to 130 students across the country who are studying in IIT, NIT, AIIMS and also to those who are rank holders of ICAI or those who are toppers of their states like Rajasthan, Karnataka, Tamil Nadu, Chhattisgarh, Bihar and Telangana.

As mentioned in their letter, the criteria of selection are as follows:

- o candidates who have secured more than 85% average marks but more than 90% marks in core subjects;
- o candidates are already studying in IIT, NIT, GMCs, NLUs in India;
- o students who are in reserved quota or are enrolled in EWS

Quantum of financial assistance:

In case of students of IIT/NIT/NLU/GMC – Rs.1.00 lakh per annum

- o In case of student of Chartered Accountancy- Rs.1.00 lakh in 3 years
- o In case students are 12th pass and want to go for coaching for JEE, NEET and CA then in such case free coaching or subsidized coaching from reputed coaching institutes of India

The form for the same as available on their website is being shared.

This is a request to send us a list of such deserving, meritorious, economically disadvantaged students from your district, which we can forward to Shaping Future, for consideration.

With Best Wishes,

(Dhiraj Srivastava)

Shri Bhagwati Prasad Kalal
Collector & District Magistrate
District Bikaner
