Message from Principal

Creation, application and preservation of knowledge is a must in the emerging global scenario. This college of ours is dedicated to the cause for the past 50 years. Its alumni is a unique mix of students from poor peasantry and prosperous business class. It is spread all over India and abroad working in advantageous positions of business, social and educational leadership. This institute with a sprawling campus of 30 Acres and good state of infrastructure, is preparing itself to meet the emerging challenges. We wish to lay greater emphasis on imparting communicative and creative education. I invite all the students, alumni and leaders working in social & business fields to join hands to materialise the dreams of the aspiring youth of the area.
