About the Rajgarh

Rajgarh is a town and a tehsil in Alwar district in the Indian state of Rajasthan, Rajasthan. As a most haunted place, it is also known as Rajgarh, Alwar tehsil. It is a small town set in scenic hills dotted with forts and features waterfalls, a valley, and the hills of Aravalli.

Rajgarh is a small town on State Highway 25, close to Sarva National Park, in Alwar district of Rajasthan. It lies on the main train route between Delhi and Jaipur. Rajgarh Fort was built by Raja Prang Singh, the founder of the State of Alwar who is often referred to as the "Bharat-ko-Alwar". In 1771, Rajgarh Fort was the site of the old capital of Alwar state. Rajgarh was an incredible, prosperous capital for of Kacharya Badigar Rulers, which lost its glory after conflicts between Kachharya and Badigar clans of Rajput lineages. Famous and attractive places of Rajgarh - Kaila dera, Adivara water fall, Barra dam, Govind devy temple, Rajgarh fort, Bhangan the, haunted, Sarichauk khaveli.

About the College

The Government College Rajgarh was established in July 1967, with the objective to convey quality education to the student of Arts, Commerce and Science and P.C in Chemistry, Pol. Sc., History, Hindi and Geography. The College is also running the Distance Education Centre of Indira Gandhi National Open University (IGNOU) and Yashwantrao Chavan Open University (YCOU).
