

Report on Ph.D Viva-Voce of Kulbhooshan Saini

Ph.D Viva-Voce (online) of Mr Kulbhooshan Saini was conducted on 18/12/2023 at Sareshwati Bhawan, University of Kota, Kota (Rajasthan). The topic of her research work was "Ethnobotanical Study of the Mongiya Tribe in District Sawaimadhopur, Rajasthan".

The research work was done under the supervision of Dr P.K.Sharma, Associate Professor (R) and Co-Supervisor Professor Neerja Shrivastava, Department of Botany, Government College, Kota. Professor Neerja Shrivastava welcomed the external examiner Professor A.V.Vyas, Gujarat University of Gujrat. (Gujrat). The research scholar Mr Kulbhooshan Saini gave his presentation. External examiner examined the presentation and questions were asked by him. The answers were satisfactorily defended by research scholar. Mr Kulbhooshan Saini demonstrated a deep understanding of the research topic and addressed queries with good explanation and confidence". In the end research supervisor gave vote of thanks to Professor A.V.Vyas. Officials of research cell, faculty member of department and research scholars of botany also joined the viva-voce.

