

Report on Ph.D Viva-Voce of Amita Mali

Ph.D Viva-Voce of Amita Mali was conducted on 27/06/2023 at Sareswati Bhawan, University of Kota, Kota (Rajasthan). The topic of her research work was “Isolation and Identification of Soil Mycoflora associated with agricultural fields of Kota Region”.

The research work was done under the supervision of Professor Neerja Shrivastava, Department of Botany, Government College, Kota. Professor Neelkamal Rathor welcomed the external examiner Professor G.P. Singh, University of Rajasthan, Jaipur (Rajasthan). The research scholar Amita Mali gave her presentation. External examiner examined the presentation and questions were asked by him. The answers were satisfactorily defended by research scholar. Amita Mali demonstrated a deep understanding of the research topic and addressed queries with good explanation and confidence". In the end research supervisor gave vote of thanks to Dr. G.P. Singh. Officials of research cell, faculty member of department and research scholars of botany also joined the viva-voce.

