

Government College, Karauli

Institutional Distinctiveness

Government College Karauli is located in one of the most backward districts of India, since its establishment in 1960, it has been making efforts to spread education in this extremely backward area, Despite its nature and limited resources, the college strives to provide qualitative higher education in this tribal dominated area. This objective is attained through concerted efforts aimed at the holistic development of tribal girls in particular so as to enable them to become participants and contributors with the mainstream society. We are committed to providing quality education to the first generation learners from the tribal regions. Ensuring student participation in community service, proficiency in communication and analytical skills, nurturing critical thinking, developing soft skills as well as a sense of moral and social responsibility is primarily focused. The institution has been striving towards achieving the stated objective of “Providing higher Education and Research opportunities to the students of the weaker section, specifically Scheduled Tribe students”.

Two residential hostel equipped with all modern facilities is under construction with the grant of Rs forty lakh from UGC and Rs Three crore from the TAD department, Government of Rajasthan.
