

GOVERNMENT COLLEGE PIDAWA

Code of Conduct for Teaching Staff

- As a government employee, they are expected to follow the 'Government Rules & Policies.' (Rajasthan Service Rules).
- They must give high-quality education
- Be objective, kind, and helpful to the students, guiding, encouraging, and assisting them, and acting as competent counsellors and facilitators.
- A teacher must be dedicated and honest in his or her duties, demonstrating maximum commitment and sincerity in the College's best interests.
- Teachers are fundamentally needed to adhere to the established working hours and to be present at work fulfilling their tasks, particularly those relating to student mentoring.
- In the event that a teacher needs to take leave, he or she must first obtain permission from the Principal.

Code of Conduct for Non-Teaching Staff

- Before using any leave, you must first obtain permission from head of the institute
- Follow the rules and regulations set forth in the 'Rajasthan Service Rules.'
- Self-discipline, honesty, and integrity should all be practiced.
- During college hours, you must report to duty on schedule and remain present