commencement in accordance with the provisions of these rules except those appointed under Rule 26 or 27.

PART III. Recruitment.

6. Method of recruitment: Subject to the provisions herein contained in these rules, recruitment or appointment to posts in the Service shall be made by the method and in the proportion as indicated in column 3 of the Schedule:

Provided that-

(i) if the Appointing Authority is satisfied in consultation with the Commission, where necessary, that suitable persons are not available for appointment by the method of recruitment or in the proportion so indicated in a particular year, appointment by the other method in relaxation of such proportion may be made in the same manner as specified in these rules;

(ii) nothing in these rules shall preclude the Appointing Authority from appointing officers who were immediately before 1.11.1956 in the employment of pre-reorganisation States of Ajmer, Bombay and Madhya Pradesh to suitable posts specified in the Schedule in accordance with the directions governing the integration of their services.

% 7. Reservation of vacancies for the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes:

(1) Reservation of vacancies for the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes shall be in accordance with the orders of the Government for such reservation in forces at the time of recruitment i.e., by direct recruitment and by promotion.

(2) The vacancies so reserved for promotion shall be filled in by merit alone.

(3) In filling the vacancies so reserved the eligible candidates who are members of the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes shall be considered for appointment in the order in which their names appear in the list prepared for Direct Recruitment by the Commission, for posts falling in its purview, and by the Appointing Authority in other cases, and the Departmental Promotion.

Committee or the Appointing Authority, as the case may be in the case of promotee, irrespective of their relative rank as compared with other candidates.

7. Reservation of vacancies for the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes:- (1) Reservation for members of the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes in vacancies required to be filled by direct recruitment shall be made to the extent specified in the orders of the Government for such reservation in force at the time of recruitment.

Explanation:- In computing the extent of reservation for a particular year for the purpose of this sub-rule, the total vacancies of such year shall be taken into account and fraction of one-half or less shall be ignored while fraction exceeding one-half shall be rounded to one.

(2) In filling the vacancies reserved under sub-rule (1) the candidates who are members of the Scheduled Castes or the Scheduled Tribes shall be considered for appointment in order in which their names appeared in the list irrespective of their relative rank as compared with other candidates.

(3) If sufficient number of candidates belonging to the Scheduled Castes or the Scheduled Tribes are not available for filling all such reserved vacancies in a particular year, the remaining vacancies shall be filled by appointment of other candidates in the list and equivalent number of additional vacancies shall be reserved for candidates belonging to such caste or such tribe to be filled in the next recruitment year.

Provided that the number of vacancies reserved under sub-rule (1) and additional vacancies reserved under sub-rule (3) in the next recruitment year shall in no case exceed 45% of the total number of vacancies determined to be filled by direct recruitment under rule 15 in that year.

Provided further that if sufficient number of suitable candidates belonging to the Scheduled Castes or the Scheduled Tribes are not available in the next recruitment year to fill all the vacancies reserved under sub-rule (1) and sub-rule (3) the reservation of additional vacancies or such of them as are not filled, shall lapse.
(4) Appointments shall be made strictly in accordance with the rosters prescribed separately for direct recruitment and promotion. In the event of non-availability of the eligible and suitable candidates amongst Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes, as the case may be, in a particular year, the vacancies so reserved for them shall be filled in accordance with the normal procedure, and an equivalent number of additional vacancies shall be reserved in the subsequent four years. Such of the vacancies which remain unfilled shall be carried forward to the subsequent three recruitment years in total, and thereafter such reservation would lapse.

Provided that there shall be no carry forward of the vacancies in posts or class/category/group of posts in any cadre of Service to which promotions are made on the basis of merit alone, under these rules.

* * * Substituted in clause 4 for "In the event of non-availability of a sufficient number of eligible and suitable candidates amongst the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes in a particular year, vacancies shall not be carried forward and shall be filled in accordance with the normal procedure."

PART VI - Appointments, Probation and Confirmation.

25. Appointment to the Service: Appointment to the posts in the Service by direct recruitment or by promotion as the case may be, shall be made by the Appointing Authority on occurrence of substantive vacancies from the candidates selected under rule 22 in order of merit and from the persons selected under sub-rule(3) of rule 24 in accordance with these rules.

* 26. URGENT TEMPORARY APPOINTMENT:

(1) A Vacancy in the Service which can not be filled in immediately either by direct recruitment or by promotion under the rules may be filled in by the Government or the Authority competent to make appointment, as the case may be, by appointing in an officiating capacity thereto an officer eligible for appointment to the post by promotion or by appointing temporarily thereto a person eligible for direct recruitment to the Service, where such direct recruitment has been provided under the provisions of these rules:

Provided that such an appointment will not be continued beyond a period of one year without referring the case to the Commission for concurrence, where such concurrence is necessary and shall be terminated immediately on its refusal to concur.

Provided further that in respect of the Service or post in the Service for which both the above methods of recruitment have been prescribed, the Government or the Authority competent to make appointment, as the case may be, shall not save with the specific permission of the Government in the Administrative Department, fill the temporary vacancy against the direct recruitment quota by whole time appointment for a period exceeding three months, otherwise than out of persons eligible for direct recruitment and after a short term advertisement.

(12) The provisions of this rule shall have effect notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any provision of these rules, vide notification No.F.7(1C). DOP/A.II/77 dated 7.1.78 came into force from the date of publication in the Rajasthan Rajpatra.

* Substituted for Rule 26: Temporary Appointment.

A vacancy in the Service in respect of posts which are to continue for a period of more than one year shall be filled in by the Appointing Authority by appointing thereto in a temporary capacity a person whose name is included in the list prepared under sub-rule 20 or in the lists approved under sub-rule (8) of rule 24 in the same proportion and according to the same method by which substantive vacancies are required to be filled in by these rules.
(2) In the event of non-availability of suitable persons, fulfilling the requirements of eligible for promotion, Government may, notwithstanding the condition of eligibility for promotion required under sub-rule(1) above, lay down general instructions for grant of permission to fill the vacancies on urgent temporary basis subject to such conditions and restrictions regarding pay and other allowances as it may direct. Such appointments shall, however, be subject to concurrence of the Commission as required under the said sub-rule.

& Rule 27 (Deleted)

@ (27) Period of probation: (1) Every person appointed against a substantive vacancy in the Service by direct recruitment shall be placed on probation for a period of two years and those appointed by promotion / per special selection to any post against such a vacancy shall be on probation for a period of one year:

Provided that:

(i) Such of them as have, previous to their appointment by promotion / per special selection or by direct recruitment against a substantive vacancy, officiated temporarily on the post which is followed by regular selection may be permitted by the Appointing Authority to count such officiating or temporary service towards the period of probation. This shall, however, not amount to involve supersession of any senior person or disturb the order of their preference in respective quota or reservation in recruitment;

(ii) any period after such appointment during which a person has been on deputation on a corresponding or higher post shall count towards the period of probation.

Provided that till the preparation of the first list or lists or in case the list or lists of a calendar year are exhausted, a vacant post may be filled in temporarily by the Appointing Authority by appointing thereto a member of the service eligible for appointment to the post by promotion:

Provided further that no appointment made under the first proviso shall be continued beyond a period of one year and before the expiry of the said period, steps will be taken to make recruitment in accordance with these rules.

& Rule 27. Officiating Appointments: (Deleted)

(2) During the period of probation specified in sub-rule(1), each probationer may be required to pass such Departmental Examination and to undergo such training as the Government may, from time to time, specify.

Explanation: In case of a person who dies or is due to retire on attaining the age of superannuation the period of probation shall be reduced so as to end one day earlier on the date immediately preceding the date of his death or retirement from Government Service. The condition of passing the Departmental Examination in the rule regarding confirmation shall be deemed to have been waived in case of death or retirement.

Rule 27. re-numbered as Rule 27(Substituted) Probation:

(1) All member of the Service appointed by direct recruitment against a substantive vacancy shall be on probation for a period of two years and those appointed by promotion against such a vacancy shall be on probation for a period of one year:

Provided that such of them as have previous to their appointment by promotion officiated temporarily on a post encadred in the service, may be permitted by the Appointing Authority to count such officiating temporary service towards the period of probation upto a maximum of six months:

Provided further that any period after such appointment during which a person has been on deputation on a corresponding or higher post shall count towards the period of probation.

(2) During the period of probation specified in sub-rule (1), each probationer may be required to pass such departmental examination and to undergo such training as the Government may, from time to time, specify.

Explanation: In case of a person who dies or is due to retire on attaining the age of superannuation, the period of probation shall be reduced one day earlier so as to end on the date immediately preceding the date of his death or retirement from Government Service. The condition of passing the Departmental Examination in rule regarding confirmation shall be deemed to have been waived in case of death or retirement.
27.3: (a) Notwithstanding anything contained in the rule if no order of confirmation is issued by the Appointing Authority within a period of six months, an employee appointed on temporary or officiating basis who has, after the date of his regular recruitment by either method of recruitment completed a period of two years service, or less in the case of those appointed by promotion where the period of probation prescribed is less, on the post or a higher post under the same Appointing Authority or would have so worked but for his deputation or training, shall on the occurrence of permanent vacancies be entitled to be treated as confirmed if the same conditions as are prescribed under the Rules for the confirmation of a probationer are fulfilled subject to the quota prescribed under the Rules and in accordance with his seniority.

Provided that if the employee has failed to give satisfaction or has not fulfilled any of the conditions prescribed for confirmation, such as passing of Departmental Examination, training or promotion cadre course etc., the aforesaid period may be extended as prescribed for probation or under the Rajasthan Civil Services Departmental Examination Rules, 1959 and any other Rules, or by one year, whichever is longer. If the employee still fails to fulfill the prescribed conditions or fails to give satisfaction, he will be liable to be discharged from such post in the same manner as probationer or reverted to his substantive or lower posts, if any to which he may be entitled.

Provided further that no person shall be debarred from confirmation after the said period of service if no reasons to the contrary about the satisfactory performance of his work are communicated to him within the said period.

(b) The reasons for not confirming an employee referred to in the second proviso to clause (a) shall, in the case of a non-gazetted employee, be also immediately recorded by the Appointing Authority in his Service Book and C.R. file and in the case of Gazetted Officer communicated to the Accountant General, Rajasthan and in his Confidential Report File. A written acknowledgement shall be kept on record in all those cases.

EXPLANATION:

(i) Regular recruitment for the purpose of this rule shall mean appointment after either of the methods of recruitment or on initial constitution of service in accordance with any of the Service Rules promulgated under provision to Article 309 of the Constitution of India or for posts for which no Service Rules exists, if the post are within the purview of Rajasthan Public Service Commission recruitment in consultation with them but it shall not include an urgent temporary appointment adhoc appointment or officiating promotion against temporary or lien vacancies which are liable to review and revision from year to year. In case where the Service Rules specifically permit appointment by transfer such appointment shall be treated regular recruitment if the appointment to the post from which the official was transferred was after regular recruitment. Persons who have been made eligible for substantive appointment to a post under the rules shall be treated as having been regularly recruited.

(ii) Persons who hold lien in another cadre shall be eligible to be confirmed under this rule and they will be eligible to exercise an option whether they do not elect to be confirmed on the expiry of two years of their temporary appointment under this rule. In the absence of any option to the contrary, they shall be deemed to have exercise option in favour of confirmation under this rule and their lien on the previous post shall cease.

* 28. Unsatisfactory progress during probation:*

(1) If it appears to the Appointing Authority, at any time, during or at the end of the period of probation, that a member of the service has not made sufficient use of his opportunities or that he has failed to give satisfaction, the Appointing Authority may revert him to the post held substantively by him immediately preceding his appointment, provided he holds a lien thereon or in other cases may discharge or terminate him from service:

Provided that the Appointing Authority may, if it so thinks fit in any case or class of cases, extend the period of probation of any member of service by a specified period not exceeding two years in case of person appointed to a post in the Service by direct recruitment and one year in the case of person appointed by promotion.
